

§ 60814. Contributed $2,000 or More To Any Congressional, State, or Local Candidate For Elective Public Office in Any Year

“Contributed $2,000 or more to any congressional, state, or local candidate for elective public office in any year” means the following:

(a) “Contributed $2,000 or more” means having made contributions defined as follows:

(1) With respect to contributions to a congressional candidate, contributions as defined in section 431(5) of title 2 of the United States Code.

(2) With respect to contributions to a state or local candidate, contributions as defined in section 82015 of the Government Code.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), contributions shall not include payments made by a candidate for a local elective public office to support his or her own candidacy for that office.

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (3), a contribution shall be attributed to a contributor in the manner provided by the federal or California laws that govern the contribution.

(b) A congressional candidate for elective public office means any candidate for the office of Senator or Representative in the Congress of the United States elected from California.

(c) A state candidate for elective public office means any candidate for “elective state office” in California, as defined in section 82024 of the Government Code.

(d) A local candidate for elective public office means any candidate for a regional, county, municipal, district, or judicial office in California that is filled by an election.

(e) “In any year” means the period January 1 through December 31 within a single calendar year.
